

Disclosure statement for David S. Johnson for “Improving the measure of the distribution of Personal Income”

Dr. Johnson did not receive support to work on this manuscript. During the past year, he has received support from the National Science Foundation, Russell Sage Foundation, National Institute on Aging and The Eunice Kennedy Shriver National Institute of Child Health and Human Development for work on other projects. Dr. Johnson currently Past President of the Association of Public Policy Analysis and Management, member of Washington Center for Equitable Growth Research Advisory Board and Council member for the International Association for Research in Income and Wealth