

Disclosure Statement for AERI Final Submission

Date: January 6, 2022

Author: Tajana S Rosing

Paper: Using Neural Networks to Predict Micro-Spatial Economic Growth

1. Sources of financial support for the research.

Tajana Rosing acknowledges financial support from the Russell Sage Foundation

2. Each interested party from whom he or she has received significant financial support, summing to at least $10,000 in the past three years, in the form of consultant fees, retainers, grants and the like.

I list below all parties from which I have received substantial funding in the past three years. This funding was for research unrelated to the current paper, and I do not believe any qualifies as an “interested party” but I am erring on the side of completeness nonetheless: National Science Foundation (NSF), DARPA, Semiconductor Research Corporation (SRC) and its member companies, Qualcomm.

3. Each author should disclose any paid or unpaid position as officer, director, or board member of relevant non-profit organizations or profit-making entities. A “relevant” organization is one whose policy positions, goals, or financial interests relate to the article.

None

4. The disclosures required above apply to any close relative or partner of any author.

I have no such conflicts of interest.

5. Each author must disclose if another party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

No other party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.
