Manuscript title: Spending Responses to High-Frequency Shifts in Payment Timing: Evidence from the Earned Income Tax Credit

- I have received no external financial support for this research. I contributed to the paper while on staff at the Federal Reserve Board.
- I have received no external funding from an “interested party” in the past three years.
- While contributing to the paper, I was on the Advisory Committee for the Washington Center for Equitable Growth. The position was unpaid. It does not relate directly to the research paper. I am now on staff at Equitable Growth. My contributions to the paper were completed before I began work there.
- No close relative or partner has anything to disclose.
- The spending data used in the paper are from First Data. They reviewed the paper and gave us permission to make it public.
