

Disclosure Statement of Fernando M. Martin for “Domestic Policies and Sovereign Default”

During the time this paper was written, Fernando M. Martin was an economist at the Federal Reserve Bank of St Louis. No request for prior review is associated with this position and the Federal Reserve do not have policy positions, goals, or financial interests relate to the article.

The views expressed in this paper are solely our responsibility and should not be interpreted as reflecting the views of the Federal Reserve System or the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis. No other party had the right to review the paper before submission.