

Disclosure Statement for Benjamin Castleman

I have no relevant or material financial interests that relate to the research described in our paper:
“Increasing Degree Attainment Among Low-Income Students: The Role of Intensive Advising and College Quality”

IRB approval for the study was obtained at the University of Virginia, under protocol #2013046500.

Bottom Line provided pass-through funding from the Michael and Susan Dell Foundation and the Laura and John Arnold Foundation to support the costs of the experimental evaluation. This funding was not tied to or in any way contingent upon the results of the study, and we have maintained full independence in reporting the results of our analysis.
