

Disclosure Statement of Gala M. Ledezma

January 14, 2026

As one of the authors of the paper “Inducing Cross-sector Enrollment for Community College Students Through Burden Reduction,” I hereby declare that I have no relevant or material financial interests that relate to the research described in this paper. I confirm that I have not received any funding, grants, or financial support that could potentially bias or influence the outcomes and conclusions presented in this work.

Funding for this project was provided by the National Science Foundation (Grant #1928554)

For the experimental data presented in this paper, IRB approval was obtained from The University of California, Irvine IRB office (IRB protocol #323).

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Gala Ledezma". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.