

Disclosure Statement for “Policy Analysis in Matching Markets”

Nikhil Agarwal

The author declares that he has no relevant or material financial interests that relate to the research described in this paper. Financial support from the National Science Foundation is gratefully acknowledged.

The data were obtained from the American Medical Association (AMA) under a Data Use Agreement. This agreement did not give the AMA rights to review the findings of this paper. The agreement is available on request.

Approval from Institutional Review Boards at Harvard and MIT was obtained for this research. The approval notices are available on request.